The application will only be completed if you can see this.

PS. The system is set up so that if the instructor does not approve the course within three days, it will be automatically considered as disapproved. Sending out the application does not guarantee successful withdrawal; students can remind the teacher to review their applications and track their progress.

Attention:

The total number of credits a student can take after discontinuing a course must still meet the minimum number of credits required (12 credits for juniors and below, 9 credits for seniors, and credits for extended graduates and postgraduates).

Withdrawn courses will not count towards grades or credits, will not affect rankings, and will not be refunded for miscellaneous fees. They will be marked as "Withdrawn" on the transcript. Students who are withdrawn from a course in a semester will not be eligible for the Merit Scholarship in the following semester.

If you have any questions, please contact Mr. Cheng of the Academic Affairs Office, ext. 5981.
